

BARRY MILLER FOR DEMOCRATIC RALLY FRIDAY NIGHT

The Hoovercrats are broke. Alvin S. Moody head of the bolters came out in a plain statement and accuses the Republican party of gross neglect of the new born section of the party. He says the Republicans have been lavish with their promises of financial aid but the money has not been received. An appeal for funds has been made. "We are entirely out of money" says the leader. They say they cannot carry on the campaign to drive for votes. The fact of the matter is, the state has been lost to them as well as every other unit of the solid south. Their campaign of vilification, whispermings and lack of truth in dealing with the situation has re-acted to such an extent that they no longer desire to press a losing cause. Mr. Moody could have said this: "We thought we could carry Texas for Hoover by stirring up the religious prejudice of the protestants of Texas but we find the people of Texas are not in sympathy with such a program."

R. H. Redfield, a reader at Houston, writes that we have neglected to say that Jack Johnson and Goose Neck Bill McDonald are among the prominent Republicans supporting Governor Smith. This week there has been circulated in Cameron copies of the Baptist and Commoner, religious paper printed in Arkansas in which there appears a photo of a negro dictating a letter to a white woman who is supposed to be his stenographer. This they say is in Tammany Hall in New York. The reprint is from the Fellowship Forum, the National Klan paper. The Baptist paper says that Governor Smith will have a negro in the Cabinet. Nobody of intelligence believes such a statement. This is some of the whispering campaign that is going on around the country. The Republican party is the party of the negroes and has always been the party of the negroes. Let some of the bolters who are objecting to Governor Smith give a list of the negroes who are now holding down federal jobs in the United States with white folks under them. Let them tell the story of what has occurred in the office and in the department of Mr. Hoover in Washington where negroes are working along with white women and were told that they must submit to this equality or get out. Let them tell about that. Governor Smith is a Catholic and that is the basis of their objections.

Cotton production in Milam County is in excess of the figure for 1927 to this date. Early in the harvest season the crop promises was a lesser yield than for the previous year. With better prices prevailing the crop should net a surplus of profit this year.

Lieut. Governor Barry Miller speaks on the court house lawn at eight o'clock Friday night in a county wide rally of loyal Democrats. Governor Miller has a host of friends here who will be here for the address. This will be the big event of the political week in Milam county, climaxing a series of speeches for the national ticket. The people of this section should turn out in large numbers and hear this address. Let us drive the issue hard, bring out into the open the secret of opposition to the party nominees and hang up another old time Democratic victory in Milam County for the party of Jefferson.

Typhoid has again taken its toll in life in this community. Health measures such as advanced by the city have not been as effective as might be desired but the efforts of the health authorities are to be commended. The public water supply, the usual source to furnish such disease in many sections, is declared pure. People are warned to avoid drinking from shallow wells and to use the public water supply. Personal co-operation with the health authorities is necessary if the city shall make the necessary progress in healthfulness. Everyone should read the statement issued jointly by Dr. Epperson and Dr. Sutton and comply with its provisions.

Sidewalks of Cameron. That is the watchword of the day. Since the city announced its street improvement program citizens in every section of the city have begun to build sidewalks. Many thousands of dollars are now being spent to improve the homes of the city. This work is permanent and nothing adds more to the attractiveness of the home or city than curbs and sidewalks. On with the good work.

Henry Karhunsari Returns To Cameron

Fresh from victories in Kansas and Oklahoma the Mighty Finn is back at his old home in Cameron.

Henry Karhunsari who has defeated Waino Ketonen has returned to the city ready for all comers in the middleweight wrestling position.

The Legion is not in position at this time to stage bouts as no hall is available but it is hoped that a place can be secured.

"I never felt better. I am in good condition and can throw any man in my division in the world," said Henry Karhunsari arriving here Tuesday.

THORNDALE HEARS TALK BY COUNTY ATTORNEY

A. J. LEWIS PRESENTS CAUSE OF DEMOCRATS TO BIG AUDIENCE ON SATURDAY

Taking the fight for Democracy to the people, Hon. A. J. Lewis, county attorney, spoke to a large gathering in Thorndale Saturday afternoon. Mr. Lewis is active in cooperation with the committee in promoting the ticket in this county.

Mr. Lewis is one of the prominent able speakers and his assistance is of great importance in this campaign.

In opening his address Mr. Lewis gave the history of the Democratic party and its founding under Thomas Jefferson, that the nation was developed and nurtured under Democratic rule, the service of the party touching every significant development in the history of the country.

The Democratic party, he said, is the party of the South and has always sustained and kept in touch with Southern ideals.

Discussing Governor Smith Mr. Lewis declared that Governor Smith will make a great president. His record as governor of New York was cited and his continued service to the people of that state which is normally republican is a testimony to his ability and character. If Governor Smith has demonstrated his ability as Governor of New York, bringing the best trained mind of the age on problems of government to that state, he would do the same in the nation as president.

"Governor Smith has been a potential candidate for the presidency for eight years and has been before the people in a critical, searching analysis all that time," said Mr. Lewis. "At the Houston convention there was practically no opposition and as he was nominated by an overwhelming majority as the nominee, it is the duty of all good Democrats to support him."

"While I do not agree with Governor Smith on his personal views about prohibition, he is entitled to his views, and has pledged himself to enforce the 18th amendment as long as it is the law."

Mr. Lewis drew frequent applause. There was a good demonstration when he touched upon the question of religious intolerance, pointing out that it is written into the constitution that no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification for office. Mr. Lewis closed with a plea for everyone to go to the polls and vote on November 6.

Gillis Speaks For Ticket At Lockhart

W. G. Gillis delivered a campaign address at Lockhart on last Saturday night to a large and enthusiastic crowd of Democrats.

Judge Gillis has been in demand for speeches over the state and will give as much time as possible from his engagements in this county.

The speech at Lockhart is praised by those who heard Judge Gillis as a masterful appeal for Democratic support and a ringing conviction of the Republican party before the bar of public opinion. Many prominent Democrats from over that section heard Judge Gillis. He was accompanied to Lockhart by A. F. Mitchell of Cameron.

MRS. W. H. TRIGGS IS BURIED HERE TUESDAY

PIONEER MOTHER AND CHRISTIAN WOMAN PASSES AWAY AT 67 YEARS

Sorrow and grief universal brought Cameron to the bier of one of its best loved women and Christian mothers, on last Monday, October 15, 1928 when the sad intelligence was received that Mrs. W. H. Triggs had died at her home here.

Death came to Mrs. Triggs after many days of illness during which time she bore with fortitude and great patience the suffering that was at last to take her from the bosom of the happy family life that characterizes the home of Triggs.

In the presence of her children, her husband and loved ones, the end came just as the new day had advanced to the morning. It was exactly nine o'clock when death came. There in the home where her gentle influence had nurtured a family and transmitted to sons and daughters the ideals of her life; she ended the years of an extraordinary career as a mother and a friend to all mankind. As the sunlight of early morning broke upon the world and while the family waited in anxiety with hopes falling away as petals fall from the rose, the touch of Him who gave her, held away.

Gentle as the sunset fades out along the eternal hills at eventide, she went away, her faults, if any, written upon the sands, her virtues preserved forever upon the marble shafts of memory to inspire her children and to edify the people of Cameron.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Rev. Ramsey of the Methodist church conducted the service and was assisted by Rev. Ira F. Key of Galveston former pastor of the Methodist church and a close friend of the Triggs family.

The Methodist church choir furnished music for the service, singing hymns that were favorites of Mrs. Triggs. Rev. Ramsey read a scripture, which was followed by a prayer by Rev. Key, and then he gave a resume of the life of Mrs. Triggs. Rev. Key paid tribute to the deceased, reading from the 31st chapter of Proverbs, which he said expressed the secret of her goodness and the inspiration for her life.

Interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery with Green Brothers in charge of the arrangements. Active pall bearers were W. A. Bonds, Giles Avriett, Jim Baskin, Monte Thomas, D. K. Hall and Dr. Elbra Monroe.

Honorary pall bearers were C. N. Green, T. F. Hardy, Oxsheer Smith, Rush Thomas, William Henderson, Fritz Fahrendorf, J. K. Freeman, Dan Tyson, Jeff Kemp, Arthur Baskin, Elwood Cammer, D. H. Slaughter, Charles McDermott, George Graves, Walter Sharpe, Roy Baskin, Hubert Hefley, Dr. T. J. Denson and Judd Davis.

Mrs. Triggs was born in Montgomery City Missouri in 1861, the daughter of Rev. Alexander Albright. During her early years the family moved to Texas and her father was pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South at Galveston. He later moved to New Braunfels and was still later an instructor in Southwestern University at Georgetown.

In 1881 at Taylor, Texas, she was married to W. H. Triggs of Round Rock and they lived happily together for almost forty-eight years. To this union were born five children. Mr. and Mrs. Triggs also had one daughter by adoption. All the children and seven grandchildren were present when she died. Mrs. Triggs has been a resident of Cameron for about 30 years.

Surviving her are her husband, and six children, Mrs. Lena Baskin, Mrs. Dan Hanna, Claude, W. O., A. J. and R. A. Triggs; seven grandchildren and one brother, George Albright of

BILL HAMES CARNIVAL HERE FOR RODEO FETE

H. M. AKERS SECURES BIG ATTRACTION FOR WEEK BEGINNING, MONDAY, OCT. 22

"The Crimson Special" will come tooting into Cameron at an early hour Sunday, bringing 15 carloads of fun and amusement for the American Legion Rodeo, which will open Thursday morning. It will be the special train of the Bill H. Hames Shows, the carnival attraction which will be here for one week, October 22nd to 27th.

Carrying 300 performers, artisans and laborers it will be like watching a circus unload to see the carnival get away from the railroad tracks and start its trek toward the fair grounds to open its week's stand.

This is the organization which pleased Cameron so well several years ago. It might be well to mention, however, that new rides, a larger personnel and more equipment has been added since the carnival exhibited here.

Judging the organization as it was several years ago, the Hames Shows, directed by that amusement genius, Bill Hames, are clean and wholesome and as attractive as any carnival that ever visited Cameron.

The numerous shows of the carnival will be scattered on the midway, offering a much more varied entertainment this season than before.

The minstrel show traveling with the Hames Company is the largest in tour with any carnival company this season, its cast consisting of 25 actors, who seek at all times to give their audiences good performances for their money.

The minstrel show features Clifton Phelps, the boy wonder dancer who executes one hundred and twenty-eight different and distinct Charleston and Black Bottom steps. Joe Daniel II, a simian, who eats with a knife and (continued on page 5)

Commenting on the political situation Dr. Newton makes the observation that Governor Smith will in all probability carry Massachusetts.

J. M. RALSTON SPEAKS FOR GOVERNOR SMITH

THORNDALE CROWD HEARS JUSTICE PLEAD CAUSE OF DEMOCRACY

Aside from the question of party loyalty, if he had to make a choice between Alfred E. Smith and Herbert Hoover for the presidency he would choose Governor Smith.

That was the estimate contained in a address before the Democrats at Thorndale Saturday afternoon by J. M. Ralston, justice of the peace here and former county attorney.

Mr. Ralston has volunteered his services to speak for the committee in Milam County and his address at Thorndale Saturday was well received and a very effective.

He drew a contrast between the candidates, presenting Governor Smith as a great American, big of heart, good of nature and loving mankind of all classes. Of Hoover he said, the Republican candidate has no common touch, he is isolated and alienated from the American people. Hoover, he said had never cast a vote in America until he was 42 years of age, lived in foreign countries and associated with Kings and has at no time been in touch with the common people.

"Hoover sat in the cabinet of Warren G. Harding," said Judge Ralston, "while the oil scandal was in progress, his associates in part profiting by the steal of the people's property. If Mr. Hoover knew the transactions were in progress he should have protested. If he did not know what was going on he was incompetent public servant."

Judge Ralston went into details of the long trail of crime and corruption under the Coolidge, Harding and Hoover administrations. He recalled the matchless record of the Wilson administration, saying Josephus Daniels was secretary of the navy and these corporations tried to gain these resources but the secretary steadfastly held out for the interests of the people, refusing at times to sell or lease.

In his interesting way Judge Ralston charged that Harding had unlawfully transferred these properties control from the secretary of the navy to the department of the interior where they came under the pillage of Albert B. Fall, with the consequent theft of them by Fall and others. He talked on the bribery of Fall and in detail told of the woeful and shameful record of the Republican party.

Hon. O. D. Graham introduced Mr. Ralston and A. J. Lewis presided at the speaking.

J. S. Bragg and his daughters, Misses Earl and Nadine visited in Elgin last Sunday.

Democrats Urged To Contribute Funds For Campaigns

The time is at hand when all Democrats should send in their contributions to Giles L. Avriett. The collections thus far have not been up to expectations, but no one has made a canvas, all have been voluntary.

It should not be necessary, it is pointed out for the chairman to call on the Democrats. This campaign should inspire all to contribute and to work.

All contributions should be made by check as the checks go to New York. A lithographed receipt is sent for each contribution containing the pictures of Governor Smith and Senator Robinson.

LIEUT. GOVERNOR TO ADDRESS PEOPLE HERE

CROWDS EXPECTED FOR RALLY ON COURT HOUSE LAWN FRIDAY NIGHT

Thousands are expected for the big Democratic rally here Friday night when Lieutenant Governor Barry Miller delivers the principal address of the evening to the assembled Democrats in the first county wide gathering for the election of the national ticket.

T. S. Henderson, Jr., will be master of ceremonies. Mr. Miller will be introduced by Hon. O. L. Kidd who will be presented by Hon. W. G. Gillis.

At the opening of the meeting a number of two minute speeches from prominent Democrats will be heard, including Hon. T. L. Tyson, newly elected district attorney in Robertson county who introduced Morris Sheppard at Hearne two weeks ago.

Sam Hefley, representative, is in charge of the speaking arrangements and the platform on which will be seated a number of prominent local Democrats.

Adjoining counties are expected to send large delegations to Cameron Friday night. The rally will culminate a week of campaigning in the county with local speakers addressing large gatherings.

Notably among the rallies was the meeting at Burlington on Thursday night when W. G. Gillis, O. L. Kidd, John Watson and others talked to the Democrats of that section. Sam Hefley was asked to preside at Burlington.

Governor Miller has consistently carried this county in his races for public office and a big crowd of his friends and the hosts at large will be here.

Mr. Henderson will call the rally to order at eight o'clock. The Pioneer Band under J. T. Parma will begin a concert on the square at 7:45 and will furnish music for the occasion. "Side-walks of New York" will be in demand at the Rally.

JUDGE WATSON SPEAKS FOR GOVERNOR SMITH

GAUSE DEMOCRATS HEAR APPEAL FOR SUPPORT OF THE NATIONAL TICKET

Expressing the hope that Democrats in Milam County will vote the ticket straight on November 6 and declaring his unqualified support of Governor Smith for presidency, District Judge John Watson, spoke to a large and enthusiastic gathering of Democrats at Gause on Saturday afternoon.

Judge Watson in his speech said that he had never been reluctant about supporting the nominees of his party and now believes that the duty of all Democrats is to fall in line and support the ticket. He paid a tribute to Governor Smith and contrasted his record with that of the Republicans.

In the course of his address Judge Watson reviewed the record of the Republican party during the last 8 years, detailing the crime and corruption in high places in the administration of Harding and Coolidge.

Judge Watson does not subscribe to the view expressed by Governor Smith on the question of prohibition but like many others, including Senator Morris Sheppard, believes the country's welfare demands the election of a Democrat to the presidency.

Judge Watson will be heard on other occasions on the stump in this county during the remaining days of the campaign.

COTTON REPORT

There were 41,480 bales of cotton, counting round as half bales, ginned in Milam County from the crop of 1928, prior to October 1, 1928 as compared with 41,217 bales ginned to October 1, 1927.

Health In the Home and School

By MARIE E. LORENZ, R. N.

From the very beginning of life, the child who is to be strong and robust must have sufficient and suitable food. Many children are eight or ten pounds underweight. These children are apt to be pale, have flabby muscles, and an irritable disposition. Quite frequently they are punished for being irritable and peevish when in reality they are suffering from lack of proper nutrition. Their resistance to disease is low, and when they enter school they are apt to contract the contagious diseases. They are often retarded in their development, and are backward in their studies. Lack of carefully chosen, body building food during the foundation years, will surely result in a weakened constitution, and be a handicap during the school years and in later adult life. It is not so important what children like, or dislike in the way of food, as it is that the food is suitable for the age and digestive powers. That it is nourishing, well cooked and given at regular times. Children have not the same power of digestion as adults no more than they have the same ability to think and judge as adults do. Parents need therefore to know the value of the different foods to be able to choose for the children those foods which will build bone, muscle and blood. Children should not be asked what they want to eat. The best way is to place before them without comment, simple nourishing food at regular times, keeping dessert or fruit out of sight until the plate is cleaned. Again children cannot be expected to be hungry at meal-time if they have been indulging in candies, sodas, icecream and other dainties between meals. A common mistake, when they refuse to eat their regular food is to urge them to eat especially prepared food, which they are usually unable to digest. Nothing should be given between meals except water when the regular food is refused, until the next meal when the healthy appetite will, as a rule, assert itself. Do not let them bolt half chewed food with water or milk, nor allow them to hurry their meal to get out to play. Such habits result in underweight, nervous irritability and weakness. If the child should get hungry between meals a glass of milk is always in place.

Approximately 50 per cent of all children on their admission to school are in need of immediate attention for throat and mouth or eye defects. Bad or deformed teeth indicate malnutrition or disease. Decaying teeth—even those of the temporary set, may result in disease of the tonsils, middle ear and glands of the neck. Arthritis, endocarditis, deafness, functional heart disturbance, mastoid disease, asthma, frequent sore throat, neuritis, even appendicitis are often caused by a septic focus in one or more teeth, or from diseased tonsils. Let us stress the necessity of brushing the teeth at least twice a day. The frequent use of an alkaline mouth wash, such as a weak solution of baking soda will greatly reduce the acidity of the mouth, and a gentle massage of the gums will do much to keep them healthy.

Adenoids and eye defects are the causes of much backwardness in mental development, of faculty, posture and general nutritional disturbance.

A child's eye, like the rest of his body, lacks the strength and endurance of the adults. A child's eye is readily deformed and drawn out of shape by stress or strain. Squint-eye, cross-eye or strabismus, if beginning early, may progress until the age of ten years, when unequal traction of the delicate eye muscles has changed a pretty face into a pathetic caricature, and really reduced the visual power. The principal cause of defective eyesight in school children is no doubt traceable to improper lighting of the room, wrong position of the black-board and the use of books printed with defective or too small a type.

Near sighted or myopic eyes tend to become worse instead of better. It is a costly mistake to presume that the child will outgrow these defects. Inflammatory disease of the eyes, as a rule, tend to become chronic or more disabling, unless promptly treated.

Every child with signs of any of these defects and every child annoyed by dizziness, nervousness, headache, seeing double, styes and other troubles, traceable to eye strain should have the services of an expert in diagnosis and treatment of eye disorders.

It is equally important to attend at once to every child whose hearing is impaired. There is no other physical defect that retards the child's progress in school so hopelessly as defective hearing.

Frequently recurring nasal catarrh and all colds should be treated promptly. Perhaps colds need be isolated and ought to be barred from the school room on account of the extreme danger of contagion by droplet infection, while coughing, sneezing and talking. When speaking in the ordinary tone of voice, used in a class room, droplet infection contaminates at a radius of ten feet. Then too, symptoms of cold are the first signs of scarlet fever, diphtheria, influenza and measles.

Too much care cannot be given to the correct shoeing of children, not only for the sake of conserving the health and happiness of the child, but also with an eye to the future. When running barefooted many children contract what is called dew-itch, which in reality may mean, that the child is infected with hook-worm. Saving shoes can therefore become a rather expensive proposition, when considering the loss of the child's health and the incurred cost of the treatment.

The prevalence of lateral curvature of the spine in children is traceable to the use of desks, that are entirely too high or too low.

Wardrobes seem to be one of the most difficult problems of school sanitation, as contagion is most likely to occur from garments that are infected with vermin and bacteria.

After the child has received the best care within the parents ability, they should see to it, that his health is supervised by a competent physician, that immunization to dangerous diseases be made, and that adequate care be given during illness.

Why not let children memorize a health code as they do their mother goose rhymes? The daily repetition will impress them so that at the proper time these rules will assert themselves. I quote here Dr. E. Rischar's ten commandments of health—"For the good of myself and my country I believe

1. That health is paramount, for a life to be useful, happy and prolonged.
2. I believe in the practice of cleanliness of mind, body and environments.
3. Protect yourself and house from disease, admit therein fresh air, sunlight and cheer.
4. Your food should be pure, well prepared and taken moderately.
5. Relieve your emungteries regularly, to free the body from poisons.
6. Your body and mind must be trained to understand, feel, and share the good of being.
7. Your day should be of three periods: Work, Diversion and rest.
8. Let no one by praise, promise, garment or social station induce you to sin, for they may have a contractable disease and wreck your life.
9. It is your duty to give professional care to yourself and kin for every ailment, as the most trivial may be the beginning in causing death.
10. It is my duty and promise to protect health above all other considerations, for health is individually and collectively our greatest wealth."

Let us hope that in the near future Milam County may again boast of having a public health nurse, who will assist both parents and teachers to effect what we so much desire, good health and happiness for all concerned.

In conclusion let me read to you a beautiful little paragraph from the Hygiene we use at the Hospital, quoted from R. C. Cabots, "What Men Live By." He says:

"Health as a quality of life is a challenge to all leaders, to all organizations, to all persons, everywhere, to interpret health in terms of service. When we try to serve the world we touch what is Divine. We get our dignity our courage, our joy in work because of the greatness of the far off end always insight, always attainable, never attained. Service is one of the ways by which a tiny insect like one of us can get a purchase on the whole universe. If we find the job where we can be of use, we are hitched to the star of the world, and move with it."

"YOUTH ENDANGERED"

PHILADELPHIA.—James F. Lucas, vice president of the Lucas Paint and Brush Company of Philadelphia, a well-known Republican for fifty years, has announced that he is "opposed to hypocrisy" and, accordingly, opposed to the election of Herbert Hoover. He added:

"I shall vote for Governor Smith because I believe his election would end conditions which are endangering the future of the younger generation."

DANIELS REBUKES STRATON

RALEIGH, N. C.—Rebuking Dr. John Reuch Stratton for expressing the belief that "my old friend," Josephus Daniels, would bolt the Democratic party, the former Secretary of the Navy has again emphatically declared, in a letter to the New York pastor, that he will support Governor Smith. Mr. Daniels wrote:

"I believe I can serve the cause of prohibition and temperance better by remaining in my party than by supporting Mr. Hoover, who sat in the Cabinet with Harding with all the corruption and with Coolidge with all the favoritism—the two administrations, which, by flagrant failure to enforce the law or to give it legal and moral support, have done more to harm prohibition than its open foes."

W. C. T. U. WORKER FOR SMITH

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—Mrs. Lucy Reed, member of the W. C. T. U. for thirty years and an active prohibition worker, is an ardent supporter of Governor Smith. As a genuine Dry she dislikes the illegal "wetness" of the Republican party, she says; and she adds that Governor Smith "is honest and will enforce the laws."

Mrs. Wiltz McCown and daughter, Frances of Hearne were guests last week of Mrs. S. R. McCown.

I. Examples of True Christian Benevolence (II Cor. 8:1-5).

The liberality of these Macedonian churches exhibits practically every grand principle and motive which enter into the giving which has God's sanction. Observe:

1. The source of true giving (v. 1). This is said to be the grace of God, by which is meant that the disposition to give freely of one means is a disposition created by the Holy Spirit. This puts the Christian giving on a much higher plane than that which brings the people under the bondage of the law to give a tenth.

2. They gave from the depths of their poverty, not from the abundance of their riches (v. 2).

Their limited means did not cause them to restrict their gifts, but their deep poverty abounded unto the "riches of their liberality." On the basis of this philosophy our poverty ought to be a call for greater generosity, for God has promised that if we give liberally He will give liberally in return.

3. Their willingness surpassed their ability (v. 3). God's gifts are reckoned by the degree of willingness, not by the amount given (II Cor. 8:12; 9:7).

If such grace were to come upon the churches today, there would be an abundance of funds to carry on the Lord's work.

4. They were insistent on being allowed the privilege of giving (v. 4). They did not need to be pressed into giving. How far we have departed from the apostolic method. Today we employ the shrewdest men in financial affairs that can be found to make appeals at our missionary meetings and the dedication of our churches.

5. They first gave themselves to the Lord (v. 5).

This is most fundamental to right giving, for when one gives himself to the Lord there is no reason for withholding his gifts. If one does not give himself to the Lord there will be the desire to retain as much for self as can be done within the bounds of respectability. The only right method of raising money for the Lord is first to induce men and women to give their lives to the Lord and then to give of their possessions.

II. Emulation of Macedonian Benevolence Urged (II Cor. 8:6-15).

Moved by the generosity of the Macedonian churches, Paul desired Titus to commend to the Corinthians the same grace. This grace he urged upon them, giving:

1. Not as a command (v. 8). It must be spontaneous—liberal.

2. As a proof of the sincerity of their love (v. 8). Love is more than mere sentiment; it is benevolent action toward the object loved.

3. As the completion and harmony of Christian character (v. 7).

The Corinthian church abounded in spiritual gifts such as faith, utterance, knowledge, diligence, and in love for their ministers. But the grace of liberality was needful for the harmony of their lives.

4. The self-sacrificing example of Christ (v. 9). Self-sacrifice is the test of love.

5. Because the true principles upon which gifts are acceptable with God is a willing mind (vv. 10-12). God does not estimate the value of a gift on the ground of its intrinsic worth, but the underlying motive of the giver.

6. Because of a common equality (vv. 13-15). Every Christian should give something. The law governing the gift is ability.

III. Encouragement to Give (II Cor. 9:6, 7).

1. The volume of reaping is based upon the sowing (v. 6). Those who sow sparingly cannot expect to reap abundantly.

2. There should be a heart purpose (v. 7). This calls for intelligence as to the object of giving.

3. Giving should not be of necessity (v. 7). No particular value accrues to the giver who gives through pressure.

4. God loves a cheerful giver (v. 7). The one who has the right understanding of his responsibility toward God with reference to temporal possessions will regard giving as a glorious privilege.

You can use it, with other clear-sighted men and women, to shorten your working hours, to increase your income, to decrease the cost of living. You can make it bring you the full value of your crops.

As a voter, you are today in an advantageous position. By turning the dial on your radio set, you can bring into your own living room the voices—and the opinions and experience—of the Nation's most distinguished speakers, thinkers and legislators. You can hear them discuss the candidates and the campaign issues.

You will want to know why so many eminent business men, educators, social workers, philanthropists, labor leaders and farm experts are breaking party ties to help elect "the most constructive, fearless, honest and human candidate since Lincoln."

You will want to know—and he wants you to know—his record and his pledges on the issues which are of vital importance to you—such issues as farm relief, the tariff, labor legislation, educational reforms, the correction of laws which cannot be enforced.

A gigantic radio hook-up has been arranged to give you that information. From scores of radio stations, six times each week, will come informative talks which will acquaint you fully with the tremendous questions to be determined by this election.

These radio stations are listed below. The schedule will be followed until election day. CUT OUT THE LIST. KEEP IT NEAR YOUR RADIO. BE SURE TO LISTEN IN. Know what you are voting for.

Iowa Farmers Endorse Smith, Condemn Hoover, While G. O. P. Senator Protests

DES MOINES, Iowa.—Still another Midd' Western farm organization, the Farmers' Union of Iowa, with 15,000 members, has come out for Gov. Smith.

Unqualifiedly endorsing the Corn Belt Committee resolution endorsing the Democratic platform and candidate, despite an earnest plea for Hoover by Senator Brookhart, it adopted a resolution of its own which said:

"The nomination of Herbert Hoover, pledged as he is to carrying out the Coolidge policy and with his record of injustice to Agriculture, should be resented at the polls by every farmer of the Middle West."

A Statement to the Public by L. W. Baldwin, President of the

MISSOURI PACIFIC LINES Freight Rates

MANY people continue to advocate changes in the railroad freight rate structures, some, frequently, without knowledge of the facts or fundamental economics involved, urge downward revision of this, that or some other rate structure.

This is a subject in which the public is more vitally interested than anyone concerned. Because, in the last analysis, the public will pay the freight—and the public will get exactly what it pays for in the form of a transportation plant and railroad service. Railroad men are, of course, intensely interested because they realize better than the uninformed what is involved—and what the results will be if various proposed changes are effected.

The public is most vitally interested in a proper relative rate. The rates on any commodity, if the shipper is in a proper relative position, do not affect him or his business one way or another. As a matter of fact rates are not and have not been too high—they have not been high enough. Congress has provided that the railroads are entitled to a fair rate of return, and the Interstate Commerce Commission was instituted to determine what would constitute a fair rate, and the Commission has decided that 5 1/2 per cent return on the value of the property used in producing railroad transportation service would be fair.

The railroads have not, since the Transportation Act of 1920 was enacted, realized this much, and particularly the Western railroads have fallen far below. The rates of return for the Western lines range from 1.21 per cent in 1920 to 4.32 per cent, the peak year in traffic handled—the rate in 1927 being only 3.80 per cent.

It is a common fallacy that the Transportation Act guaranteed the railroads a fair rate on the value of their property. As a matter of fact the difference between the fair rate of return determined by the Commission and the amount obtained since the enactment of the Transportation Act of 1920 passed, which is in excess of $2,000,000,000 represents a clear loss to the railroads, since no provision was made for insuring a fair return.

Some advocates of lower rates contend that rate reductions will tend to bring about an increased volume of traffic that will offset the reductions in compensation to the carriers per unit of service performed. These contentions are continually made, notwithstanding the fact that it has been demonstrated over and over that such is not true. The prices of agricultural commodities, for example, are in no wise dependent upon transportation rates. On the contrary, numerous careful surveys prove conclusively that prices for such commodities fluctuate annually over a far wider range than the total amount of the freight rates involved in moving those commodities from point of production to the point of ultimate consumption.

It also has been demonstrated that when the railroads receive a fair rate for service performed and are thereby enabled to obtain capital and improve the physical plant and improve the service, the business of the Nation as a whole benefits and a material contribution is made by the railroads to the prosperity of the country.

America is engaged in a gigantic struggle today—the effort to keep down inventories—do more business with less capital tied up. Adequate and dependable railroad transportation is the key to this situation. If the railroads are starved to a point where the income will not permit the upkeep and improvement of the physical property and promise a fair return on the capital invested—then the physical plants of the railroads will suffer and investment capital will seek other sources of return.

Tampering with rate structures is one of the most dangerous experiments in the world. Those persons and communities whose welfare and future prosperity are dependent on the best transportation service in the world—which America is getting today—owe it to themselves to discourage loose talk about reducing freight rates.

I solicit your co-operation and suggestions.

"SOUTHERN HEDGING"

Every news item about the cotton gambling market carries with it the stock phrase, "The market sold off due to Southern hedging."

"Southern hedges!" are sales by the hundred bale buyer in a country town on the future market to protect his few points profits during the several days needed, by mail and wire, to approve the grade and transfer title to the Million Bale Purchasers—the friends of the Republican Department of Agriculture—who are buying, not selling, during September, October and November.

"Southern hedging!" A bale of cotton family's tears with every bale of their foreclosed cotton at a starvation price.

"Southern hedging!" A sneering jibe at those who believe that Southern farmers sell cotton gambling futures to be sure that he gets less than his cost for the cotton opening in his fields.

"Southern hedges!" Count them up and you know the number of cotton bales foreclosed on in the South that day in cotton picking time.

"Southern hedging!" A lie used to indicate Southern fear of a still lower price—instead of the misery of seeing his hope of prosperity taken from him by foreclosure when all he hopes for is to be permitted to hold instead of being forced to sell.

"Southern hedging!" The product of a years labor in the arms of poverty at the price of another year of poverty.

That is Southern Hedging. The product of a Republican Department of Agriculture.

Vote to put the Democratic friends of the cotton farmer's family into the Department of Agriculture.

THE CANDIDATES AND THE WOMEN

To the Editor of The Citizen:

We hear so much—the most of which emanates from Republican headquarters—about Mr. Hoover's appeal to women. We hear that it is the women's votes that will elect him. It is queer that Mr. Hoover in 1928 thinks that the vote of women is important while in 1918 he valued women so slightly that he refused to give suffrage leaders even a five-minute interview to help them in their fight for political freedom. For proof I refer to Doris Stevens' "Jailed for Freedom," page 26. 6She further says: "The Chief Food Administrator would continue to demand sacrifices of women throughout the war, and he would not give so much as a thought to their rights in return. Mr. Hoover was the only important man in public life who steadfastly refused to see our representatives. After announcing his candidacy for the Presidency he authorized his secretary to write us a letter saying he had always been for suffrage."

This Hooverian policy of fearing to make a statement unless he is sure it will help him in his decided contrast with the frank, fearless and courageous Governor of New York, Alfred E. Smith, who called a special session of the New York Legislature in 1919 to ratify the suffrage amendment. He did this so that New York could be among the first of the States to ratify this enfranchising of women. He did not stop there. He sought and received equal representations for women and men in party affairs.

Mr. Hoover's alibi was that he was too busy. There is no one in the world too busy to give a five-minute interview. If Mr. Hoover's job as Food Administrator taxed him so heavily then it is unquestionably true that he would not be able to be President; and I believe that the women have far too much respect for men in public life to overtax their minds or to make excessive demands on their time.

As the campaign progresses we shall hear much of Mr. Hoover's beautiful character, of his saving the starving children of Europe. That, of course, is a fine thing. But we hear nothing of the thousands of children in the State of New York that Smith has helped. We hear nothing of the improvements he has made in working conditions, we hear nothing of the widow's pension bill that he fought for and passed; we hear nothing of his fight for the State supervision of waterways. Why? Because a mere handful of fanatical women are shouting about the Volstead Act. It seems now that Mr. Hoover is trying to take Smith's view on the Volstead Act since he has observed the reaction among intelligent men to Smith's views. It is one of life's ironies, this appeal of Hoover's to the women of the Nation to vote for the man who refused to aid them in gaining the vote that he now needs so badly. The records of the two candidates are open to all. One is that of a man who takes a year to make up his mind which way to jump. The other is that of a man who thinks on his feet. We want a man who is fearless. We need a man of action. We want a man who is alive. American women respect and admire a man who is willing to give his opinion and allow it to be given the acid test of public opinion. We all love the person of pioneer spirit. Whether it be that of 1776 or 1928. We love the person who is unafraid. Governor Smith is a pioneer in this newest and most glorious epoch of American freedom. American womanhood salutes him and will show appreciation to the man who was instrumental in obtaining this splendid new freedom for women by giving him the highest office in this Nation that he so sincerely loves.

CAMERON PEOPLE TELL OF HEALING BY PRAYER

WOMAN DEAF SINCE CHILDHOOD HEARS CLOCK TICK IN THE MORNING FIRST TIME

Interest in the Davis revival now being held in the City Park, reached a high peak Sunday night with a large enthusiastic audience in attendance. A number of unusual testimonies of divine healing were given, which apparently stirred the listeners, as frequently 'amens' would surge through the audience.

One of the most interesting testimonies was given by Mrs. H. S. McLane of Cameron, who said she was healed instantly of deafness. Mrs. McLane said she had been totally deaf in her left ear since she was eight months old and partially deaf in her right ear. The ear drum was gone entirely from the left ear and there was a hole in the right ear, she said. She could not hear a watch tick unless she had it between her teeth in her mouth. Immediately after she was prayed for she answered questions given behind her back 15 feet away. She had a finger in her 'good' ear at the time. She also said she could hear a watch ticking that was held in a few inches from her left ear. She claimed that the next morning after she was prayed for she heard a clock ticking across the hall and at first could not realize what it was. Mrs. McLane also related the healing of her little girl, Verna Mae. She said the child was healed soon after she obtained a healing card and before she was prayed for by Evangelist Davis. She had had two large growths in her lower lip, and the next morning after she received the card they had disappeared.

Another interesting testimony was given by Mrs. Fred Roschetzky, who lives five miles out of Cameron. Mrs. Roschetzky said that her small daughter, Alice, was healed also before she was prayed for and on the day after she obtained a healing card. According to the mother the child had suffered with stomach trouble and pains in her left foot following a attack of infantile paralysis. She was unable to sleep at night without taking paragonic. Mrs. Roschetzky said that she herself was healed of varicose veins.

The revival will continue next week with services in the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and at 7:30 o'clock every night. There will be a service at 3:00 o'clock on Sunday afternoon.

Misses Clyde and Lena Bell Bas-in, students at Southwestern University, came home for the funeral of their grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Friggs.

Trade Briefs

H. L. Fleming, traveling representative for the Toncan Iron Company of Houston, for which W. F. Polansky of Caldwell is agent for this territory was in Cameron Tuesday in company with Mr. Polansky calling on prospects here. Mr. Polansky expressed satisfaction over the newly added territory and believes there will be a wide demand for the Toncan Molybdenum Iron roofing here once its great qualities are realized. In The Herald will be found each week an advertisement from the plant of Mr. Polansky at Caldwell. He has a large industry and is capable of handling any kind of a roofing job. If the people here would concentrate on this roofing or asbestos shingles the city's insurance rate would be cut materially. The Toncan iron makes an excellent and lasting economical roof.

Business is getting better every day according to C. N. Green who is this week again advertising the Majestic Radio set. He has put into a number of homes, these new static elimination sets and believes he has the best one on the market. Mr. Green is enthusiastic about his business and his radio set. The big store is featuring many bargains these days in groceries, furniture and radio sets.

The business and professional women who occasionally appear in the role of promoting plays and thereby qualify for commercial classification in that they are engaged in making money for their use as an organization, are to be congratulated on the play 'Abie's Irish Rose.' This famous old comedy has thrilled the nation for years.

W. H. Shipp of the Peter Produce Company is getting ready for the fall turkey business. He has some timely advice to the farmers this week, asking them to feed their turkeys. They will be sold this year on grade, the same as cotton or any other product, he says. The Peter Company was the original factor in the promotion of the turkey industry in this section of the state.

The Keith Electric Company is pushing the sale of Delco Lighting plants now. This company also sells the Frigidaires, the famous electric refrigerator.

Green Produce Company this week tells the farmers some good news about turkeys and turkey prices. This fall bids fair to be a good time for selling turkeys and the Green Produce Company is to play its part in the marketing of these turkeys.

J. D. Dobbins continues to advertise his big fall unloading sale. This week papers have announcements of the big price reductions.

W. B. Levy is well pleased with his sale. The people in large numbers have increased their buying as a result of the big reductions.

The Citizens National Bank of Cameron is larger than any bank in Temple. This speaks well for Cameron and for the Citizens Bank.

Community Natural Gas Company is offering some special inducements on the gas heaters this week. The people will be interested in the announcement.

Home owners will be interested in the announcement in this issue of the Cameron Furniture Company. A special price offering on exclusive new furniture. Special prices are quoted and special values given for the profit of the purchaser. Read the big ad in this issue of The Herald.

Card of Thanks

We take this method of extending to our friends and neighbors and the good people of Cameron our sincere thanks for the many acts of kindness shown us and the words of sympathy spoken to us during our recent bereavement. We especially thank those who gave flowers and all who assisted us in any way during the illness and death of our son and brother, Albert Michalka.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. Michalka and family.

Marian Rector of Shreveport, La., a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Hefley will spend the winter with them and attend school here.

NOTICE

This is to give notice to the public that cotton receipt No. 42584 issued in the name of Gus Ludwig on the 4th day of October 1928, by the Cameron Compress Company, for one bale of cotton delivered by him to that company, has been lost, and that the undersigned is the legal owner and holder of said cotton, and the public is warned not to accept said receipt or to deal with same in the hands of any other person.

WARPATH IS FEATURE OF COTTON PALACE

Snake Girl, Breath-Taking Rides and Human Freaks All to Be Found on Midway.

A family of six people who weigh 3,274 pounds—or 540 pounds apiece average—and a performance in which the audience is convinced that a bullet passes through the body of a live woman. These are two of the entertaining acts which will be seen on the warpath of the Texas Cotton Palace at Waco from Nov. 9 to 18.

Since the warpath attractions prove one of the best drawing cards for the Cotton Palace, this year's midway entertainment is one of the best known obtainable traveling shows, the Morris and Castle company. For one thing, law enforcement officials recommend the organization and cleanliness of the shows. For another, they are bringing a monkey speedway, a "Darktown Shuffle Along" revue, a clean girl show and 10 or 12 other acts.

Human freaks and a collection of domestic animal freaks will be on exhibit. Boys and girls in the most thrilling show, the Globe of Death, turn somersaults and ride upside-down in defiance of gravity inside a steel ball. The monkey speedway, which delights youngsters, and Emogene, authority on reptiles who brings a living exhibit to illustrate her talks will be in evidence. The fun houses, "Revelation," free animal acts and a rodeo are announced by the Cotton Palace to be coming, and besides the merry-go-round, whip, ferris wheel and caterpillar that have been on the warpath before, there will be "dodge 'em," "hey-dey" and "dangler" in the way of novelty rides.

At night the warpath is one of the brightest spots in the Cotton Palace grounds. Morris and Castle have their own electric light plant in their $330,000 show, and it is strong enough to furnish a town of 5000 people with electricity. Colored banners, gold leaf fronts to the show cars and novelty lighting effects add color to the scene.

DEBUTANTES TO BE TWICE ON PARADE

Texas Cotton Palace Exposition Takes Pride in Announcement of Forthcoming Beauty.

Twice on parade, the debutantes of Texas, this year at the Texas Cotton Palace Exposition.

This was the announcement today from Exposition directors now planning the tremendous show of November 9 to 18th, inclusive, when decision was reached to present sweet and lovely young Texas girls first at the far-famed Texas Cotton Palace debutantes' reception, and again at a Cotton Dress Ball. The first event will be on the night of November 14 in the exposition's Coliseum; the second the following night, November 15, in the same place.

Because of the contrast presented between the attractions of Wednesday and Thursday nights, these promise to be two of the most interesting to spectators in the coliseum. Where as sequins, rich satins and chiffons, feather fans and rhinestone buckles are evident in the coming out dresses of Central Texas debutantes on the first night, there are to be prizes for the most attractive costume that proves the least expensive on Thursday night. Mrs. Emma Perry Boles, county home demonstration agent, reports already that many McLennan county girls are sewing on their organdie, gingham and print dresses. One of the requirements for a winner is that she make a dainty set of underwear to accompany her dress.

WACO, Texas.—Feature days and feature programs will be the rule at the Texas Cotton Palace this year. A show of unusual merit will appear in the coliseum all of the first week, while a new and distinct program will be offered each day and night of the second week.

Cameron Water O. K. Says Public Health Department Report

The state board of health in its report received here on Tuesday says the Cameron public water supply is o. k. Tests were made at two homes where typhoid is reported and in each instance the water has been found free of any such germs. Precautions are taken by the water company against any possibility of contamination and the managers, Mr. and Mrs. Watson are to be congratulated on their vigilance. The Texas Water Utilities will at all times throw about the water supply the greatest possible safeguard, including sand filters they are soon to install.

Mrs W. H. Dukes of Milano is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ed Lovick this week.

W.C.T.U. Executive, A Republican and Baptist, for Smith

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—Not all Southern Drys are so naively credulous that they allow themselves to be duped by the furtive libels conceived by the instigators of the "whispering campaign."

Among influential prohibitionists who are working actively for the election of Governor Smith is Mrs. Mabel Jones West of this city, a member of the State Executive Committee of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Declaring in a public statement that "Smith is a better prohibitionist than Hoover," Mrs. West has appealed to all Alabama women "not to be deceived by paid Republican propaganda."

Mrs. West is an active worker in the Baptist church. Until this year she has been a Republican.

What Borah Told the Senate About Hoover

Panic stricken over the imminent loss of all the States which have had the opportunity to see and hear Governor Smith, the Republican National Committee has cancelled Senator Borah's scheduled Eastern speeches so that he can devote his whole time in a desperate effort to stem the Smith tide in the West.

Since the campaign speeches of this high-powered Republican spell-

SENATOR PETER NORBECK, Republican, of South Dakota, said in the Senate on April 20, 1928: "I have been here for seven years while Mr. Hoover has been Secretary of Commerce, and he is the one man who has never raised his voice against agricultural inequality. . . . He should never be elected President."

binder are purely "political," he, of course, will not divulge his own personal feelings and opinions. Those who hear him, however, might be interested in the Senator's real estimate of Herbert Hoover, as gleaned from his own utterances in the Senate.

In a scathing arraignment of the former Food Administrator after the war, Senator Borah said:

"Whatever may be the great ability of Mr. Hoover, there is one individual whom he does not know exists in this country, and that is the taxpayer. He seems to think that money comes like manna to the children of Israel from Heaven and not from the sweat and toil and sacrifice of the people."

Declaring that Hoover had permitted disgraceful profiteering by the meat packers, and charging him with "violation of the most fundamental principles of our Constitution," Senator Borah exclaimed:

"CONGRESSMAN CHARLES BRAND, Republican of Ohio, asserted in the Senate on March 12, 1929: "Mr. Hoover has been the supreme opponent of agricultural prosperity for the past ten years. . . . If Mr. Hoover is elected President of the United States, agriculture is doomed to eight more years of misery."

"No one with such a perverted sense of decency ought to be entrusted with unlimited power to spend $100,000,000."

"The water power interests (as well as the meat packers) are in favor of giving Mr. Hoover as much authority as possible. But if what Senator Borah told the Senate is true, how can he ask thinking voters to place Mr. Hoover in a position to control, directly or indirectly, all the vast resources of the United States Government?"

SENATOR CHARLES CURTIS, Republican candidate for Vice President, referring to Herbert Hoover, on June 17, 1928, declared:

"The convention cannot afford to nominate as the head of the ticket, any one for whom the party will be on the defensive from the day he is inaugurated until the polls close on election day."

OFFICIAL BIGOTRY

G. O. P. Committee Backs Mrs. Willbrandt's Appeals to Religious Hatred.

Despite the indignant protests of numerous Republican newspapers throughout the country, the Republican National Committee has officially sanctioned the campaign of bigotry and vilification being waged by Mrs. Mabel Walker Wilbrandt, Assistant Attorney General.

Although several United States Senators have demanded her removal from office, and the Republican press, fearing an "American reaction" to her un-American appeal to religious intolerance, continues to insist that she be "muzzled," Herbert Hoover indicates by his silence that he approves the action of his campaign managers.

MAJ. GEN. ALLEN LEADS VETERANS

Accepts Post at Head of ex-Soldiers' Bureau in Smith Campaign.

Major General Henry T. Allen, Commanding General of the American Army of Occupation in Germany and a popular national military figure, is directing the activities of the Veterans' Bureau of the Democratic National Committee. Major General Allen agreed to head the bureau following a talk with Chairman John J. Raskob.

"I know the soldiers would have a very good friend in Governor Smith," said General Allen. "Moreover, I think Governor Smith appeals to them in a very striking manner by reason of his personality and record. I feel that the soldiers haven't had a very large say in the affairs of the country as compared with what they ordinarily have had after every great war. But, of course, it would be impossible to force down all the husky men who were organized during the great war and they will be heard from during the coming years."

"The Veterans' Bureau is a division of the campaign which is of very great importance," Chairman Raskob said in announcing the appointment. "The veterans are entitled to know all about the candidate, what he stands for, and the policies of the party, and we are greatly anxious to have an opportunity of telling the veterans what we know about Governor Smith's record and character."

Major General Allen served as Commanding General of the Army of Occupation in Germany for three and one-half years. He was later advisor to the American Ambassador to Great Britain at the conference of Ambassadors in Paris during the Harding administration.

After a distinguished military career General Allen was promoted to Major General just before the United States entered the World War and organized the Ninetieth Division, which he led in the major offensives at St. Mihiel and the Argonne-Meuse. As Commander of the Army of Occupation he was a member of the Inter-Allied Rhine High Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan and family and Miss Laurita Evans spent Sunday in Bryan with Mr. Ryan's mother.

Living Room Contest Talked By Home Demonstration Club

The Ben Arnold Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. J. C. Komar October 17 with 12 members present. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Vogelsang at two o'clock. Mrs. Vogelsang then explained the filling out of the year books and requested each member to fill out and send her book to the secretary, Mrs. O. C. Nolte by November 1.

The living room contest was discussed and it is hoped the Ben Arnold Club will have several contestants. The club voted that each member make at least two improvements in her living room this year.

The committee on election of officers reported as follows:

Pres., Mrs. O. C. Nolte.

Vice-Pres., Mrs. Willis Vogelsang.

Sec-Treas., Mrs. W. R. Newton.

Reporter, Mrs. Ed Gavenda.

Mrs. Nolte being unable to accept her office, the matter was carried over to our next meeting.

We are glad to have Miss Leila Sproull and Mrs. A. Stoeber as our new members.

Miss Bartholomew gave a very interesting demonstration in making hooked and braided rugs. She gave instructions in selection of material and color combinations. It seemed as though every member was going to make a rug or two, so interested were they. The club then adjourned to meet at the school house the third Wednesday in November for a program on Education in Texas. Mrs. Komar will lead a round table discussion on What Are the Outstanding Educational Needs in our Community.

And What can our Club do to Help these Needs. Mrs. Sproull will give What Educational Opportunities are provided by the Smith-Lever and Smith-Hughes funds. Is our community getting the benefit of these funds? There will be other interesting talks by some of the members. A good attendance is desired.

More Than
The Toe

THE driving power behind the toe of the gridiron warrior is not acquired in a single day. It requires many an hour of hard work building up, step by step, a reserve force of energy, accuracy, strength.

Neither is financial success acquired over night. It requires the day-by-day building of a reserve fund, deposited where helpful bank associations add much to the value of the account.

We will be glad to safeguard your funds and aid in any way that will help you to roll up a good score in the game of life.

SMITH SEEN AS TRUE CHAMPION OF TEMPERANCE

Sheppard and Barkley, Authors of 18th Amendment, Among His Campaign Speakers.

"HE WILL ENFORCE LAW AND END CORRUPTION"

Noted Drys Throughout Country Repudiate "Hoover and Hypocrisy"—Many Working Actively for Governor's Election.

Exposing the irresponsibility and hypocrisy of attacks upon Governor Smith ostensibly because of his stand on prohibition, hundreds of the country's most notable Drys are openly avowing their support of the Democratic candidate.

These sincere men and women, many of whom have been actively identified for many years with the prohibition cause, are convinced that the Governor's election is the only hope of ending the carnival of crime, corruption and debauchery which has characterized the mal-enforcement of the Volstead law.

Most impressive of the declarations of loyalty to Governor Smith, so far as prohibition is concerned, is that of Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas, one of the authors of the Eighteenth Amendment. An able, honest and life-long Dry, he is regarded as one of the foremost advocates of prohibition in America.

As a campaign speaker in behalf of Governor Smith's candidacy, Senator Sheppard is expressing in no half-hearted manner his belief that a vote against Hoover is a vote against lawlessness and in temperance.

The other co-author of the Eighteenth Amendment, Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky, has also volunteered to assist actively in the Smith campaign. He is chairman of the Governor's campaign committee in Kentucky, and a member of the National Advisory Committee. Senator Barkley has long been engaged as a prohibition speaker.

Another noted Dry who has taken the stump for Smith is Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, who has described himself as being "for prohibition before some of these preachers knew the meaning of the word."

Pointing out Governor Smith's record of achievement, his reputation for flawless honesty and courage, these leaders remind their followers that he has promised to "execute to the very limit the pledge of our platform to make an honest endeavor to enforce the Eighteenth Amendment."

They recall that he also said: "The corruption of enforcement activities which caused a former Republican Prohibition Administrator to state that three-fourths of the dry agents were political ward heelers named by politicians without regard to Civil Service laws, and that Prohibition is the 'new political pork barrel,' I will ruthlessly stamp out. Such conditions will not and cannot exist under any Administration presided over by me."

They are confident that the promise will be kept if Smith is elected. And modification, should Congress decide upon such a course is certainly preferable, they say, to a continuance of Republican nullification.

Among other prominent figures noted for their prohibition activities, who have declared for Gov. Smith, are Josephus Daniels, former Secretary of the Navy; Gov. Dan Moody of Texas; Magnus Johnson, former Progressive Senator from Minnesota; Senator Walter F. George of Georgia; Henry C. Stuart, former Governor of Virginia; Judge W. B. Swaney of Tennessee, and Senator Cole Blaise of South Carolina.

Well-known women prominently identified with the Dry cause, who are now supporting Governor Smith, include Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, former Governor of Wyoming; Emily Newell Blair, former Vice Chairman of the Democratic National Committee; Mrs. John Harlan Amen, daughter of President Cleveland; Mrs. Harry Harvey Thomas, president of the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. B. S. Saunders, president of the League of Women Voters in Mississippi.

BAPTISTS WILL MAKE GOOD SHORTAGE IN HOME MISSION BOARD'S ACCOUNTS

Honor Day is Set for Sunday, November 11, When Churches Are Asked to Lay $953,000 in Cash on Altar for This Purpose

In order that the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention may not suffer the permanent loss of a single dollar, through the reported shortage of its former treasurer, Baptist churches throughout the South are expected to lay a cash offering of $953,000 on their altars Sunday, November 11. This day has been designated Baptist Honor Day and the appeal for this offering made, by the Promotion Committee of the Convention, following a thorough canvass of the situation.

DR. ARCH C. CREE
Acting Executive Secretary of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board.

At the meeting of this large committee October 3, Dr. Arch C. Cree, acting executive secretary of the Home Mission Board, reported that the auditors gave the sum of $953,000 as their best estimate at that time of the shortage in the treasurer's accounts. Of this amount approximately $350,000, was taken from the Church Building Loan Fund, the auditor found, while the remainder of the shortage is accounted for chiefly through the sale of the notes of the Home Mission Board to banks in various Southern states. While the Church Building Loan Fund is the property of the denomination, it represents a trust fund created for aiding congregations in erecting houses of worship, and the committee feels that the obligation to restore the money taken from this source is just as binding upon Baptists as the repayment of the banks.

Need to Restore Full Amount

In his report to the Promotion Committee, Dr. Cree said the Home Board expected to realize $500,000 from the bonding company and possibly as much as $150,000 from the recent treasurer's estate ultimately. The bulk of this estate consists of real estate, however, and it may require a period of years for a full realization upon that. With all these considerations in mind, the committee felt the churches should be asked to restore the entire amount of the shortage immediately and the date for such offering was fixed for Sunday, November 11. In the case of rural or village churches not having preaching services on that day they are asked either to take this offering at the Sunday school hour on that day, or else take it on whatever preaching date falls nearest November 11. A goal of as many dollars as there are members is recommended to the churches.

Big Retrenchment Made

Drastic retrenchment has been in the work of the Home Mission Board, following its reorganization. Forty per cent of all current receipts are being applied to the reduction of the previous indebtedness of the board, making it necessary to cut the current operations to 60 per cent of the current receipts. All special offerings from whatever source are being applied to the reduction of the obligations at the banks. Dr. Cree has secured the consent of the banks carrying the bulk of the board's indebtedness to carry the present paper at a reduced rate of interest a little while longer in order to afford the churches an opportunity to make a cash offering for the relief of the board. The Promotion Committee has asked the Georgia Baptist Convention to continue its loan of Dr. Cree to the Home Board until the Southern Baptist Convention meets in May. The demand for a special cash offering for making good the Home Board's shortage came from practically every section of the South, and Dr. George W. Truett, president of the Southern Baptist Convention, and other officers expect to see the full amount raised in a cash offering November 11.

ALBERT MICHALKA IS BURIED HERE SATURDAY

DEATH OF WELL KNOWN YOUTH BRINGS SORROW TO MANY IN CAMERON

Albert Michalka, 18 years, a student of Yoe High school and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. Michalka, died Friday morning at 5:30 o'clock from an attack of typhoid fever. Funeral services were held from St. Monica's Catholic church Saturday morning at nine o'clock. Father Geo. Appel officiating. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery with C. N. Green and Brothers directing the funeral.

Survivors of the deceased are his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. Michalka, two sisters, Rosina and Pauline and two brothers, Henry and Robert.

The death of Albert Michalka brings unexpressed grief to the father and mother, who had centered high hopes in their son. Albert Michalka was an exceptional boy. He had just begun to take a part of the responsibility for his father in the shop and shoe-making agency here and had a host of friends who respected and loved him.

Albert Michalka, it will be recalled was a contributing factor to the success of the Little Theater movement here, having played leading parts in the plays directed by Joe Lindie. He had great talent and intelligence and his death at this stage of life is doubly sad.

Many who knew him came for the funeral and the floral tributes were testimonials of the esteem in which he was held and that of his family.

All that medical skill could do was resorted to in an effort to save his life but his fate was in higher hands and Albert has left with us the memories of a good life lived among his fellows. The inspiration they draw from his companionship will serve to bear them up in the hour of great sorrow.

The family has the sympathy of The Herald and a host of others who feel keenly the loss of this splendid youth.

Miss Robt Young, who is attending Southern University, spent last week end at home with her mother, Mrs. Duffie Young.

W.C.T.U. Executive, A Republican and Baptist, for Smith.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—Not all Southern Drys are so naively credulous that they allow themselves to be duped by the lurid libels conceived by the instigators of the "whispering campaign."

Among influential prohibitionists who are working actively for the election of Governor Smith is Mrs. Mabel Jones West of this city, a member of the State Executive Committee of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Declaring in a public statement that "Smith is a better prohibitionist than Hoover," Mrs. West has appealed to all Alabama women "not to be deceived by paid Republican propaganda."

Mrs. West is an active worker in the Baptist church. Until this year she has been a Republican.

What Borah Told the Senate About Hoover

Panic stricken over the imminent loss of all the States which have had the opportunity to see and hear Governor Smith, the Republican National Committee has cancelled Senator Borah's scheduled Eastern speeches so that he can devote his whole time in a desperate effort to stem the Smith tide in the West.

Since the campaign speeches of this high-powered Republican spell-

binder are purely "political," he, of course, will not divulge his own personal feelings and opinions. Those who hear him, however, might be interested in the Senator's real estimate of Herbert Hoover, as gleaned from his own utterances in the Senate.

In a scathing arraignment of the former Food Administrator after the war, Senator Borah said:

"Whatever may be the great ability of Mr. Hoover, there is one indi-

SENATOR GERALD P. NYE, Republican, of North Dakota, said on June 11, 1928:

"This man Hoover, whom some are trying to drive down our throats, believes that agriculture is improving; if agriculture is improving, it is dying from improvement."

vidual whom he does not know exists in this country, and that is the taxpayer. He seems to think that money comes like manna to the children of Israel from Heaven and not from the sweat and toil and sacrifice of the people."

Declaring that Hoover had permitted disgraceful profiteering by the meat packers, and charging him with "violation of the most fundamental principles of our Constitution," Senator Borah exclaimed:

CONGRESSMAN CHARLES BRAND, Republican of Ohio, asserted in the Senate on March 13, 1928:

"Mr. Hoover has been the supreme opponent of agricultural prosperity for the past ten years. . . . If Mr. Hoover is elected President of the United States, agriculture is doomed to eight more years of misery."

"No one with such a perverted sense of decency ought to be entrusted with unlimited power to spend $100,000,000."

The water power interests (as well as the meat packers) are in favor of giving Mr. Hoover as much authority as possible. But if what Senator Borah told the Senate is true, how can he ask thinking voters to place Mr. Hoover in a position to control, directly or indirectly, all the vast resources of the United States Government?

SENATOR CHARLES CURTIS, Republican candidate for Vice President, referring to Herbert Hoover, on June 11, 1928, declared:

"The convention cannot afford to nominate as the head of the ticket, any one for whom the party will be on the defensive from the day he is named until the polls close on election day."

OFFICIAL BIGOTRY

C. O. P. Committee Backs Mrs. Willebrandt's Appeals to Religious Hatred.

Despite the indignant protests of numerous Republican newspapers throughout the country, the Republican National Committee has officially sanctioned the campaign of bigotry and vilification being waged by Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, Assistant Attorney General.

Although several United States Senators have demanded her removal from office, and the Republican press, fearing an "American reaction" to her un-American appeal to religious intolerance, continues to insist that she be "muzzled," Herbert Hoover indicates by his silence that he approves the action of his campaign managers.

ADMIRAL COONTZ, METHODIST AND MASON, TO AID SMITH

HANNIBAL, Mo.—Admiral Robert E. Coontz, retired, former Commander in Chief of the United States fleet, has returned to his home here after a summer in Europe, to work actively a speaker in his district in behalf Governor Smith. The admiral is Methodist and a Mason.

Pat M. Neff Counts Al Smith Real Folks

While thunders of denunciation of Alfred E. Smith are being sounded from the pulpits of Methodist and Baptist churches throughout Texas, Mrs. J. E. King of San Antonio, member of the National Democratic Advisory Committee, between campaign speeches is sending out letter scolding attention to an estimate of Governor Smith prepared by former Governor Pat M. Neff while he was still Governor of Texas. In her letters also Mrs. King is calling attention to the fact that Governor Neff is perhaps the outstanding Baptist layman of Texas and is one of the most active workers in the various Baptist institutions, holding the office of chairman of the board of Baylor University and having served as president of sessions of the State Baptist Convention.

Although he is holding office on the United States Railway Mediation Board as an appointee of President Calvin Coolidge and is not taking prominent part in this campaign, Mrs. King points out in her letter that Governor Neff's enthusiasm was such that he went to Albany to hear Governor Smith deliver his speech of acceptance of the Democratic nomination for the presidency.

Governor Neff saw Governor Smith first in an hour when the New York governor was facing defeat in the famous McAdoo-Smith contest in Madison Square Garden in 1924. In the then Texas governor's book, "The Battles of Peace" under the chapter of "Pleasing Personalities That Pass My Way," on pages 236-237, Governor Neff wrote:

"It was my pleasure, while attending the National Democratic Convention in New York City to meet each of the leading candidates for the Democratic nomination for president. Governor Al Smith invited me, by special messenger, to visit him in his New York office. He has the gift of making anyone feel immediately at home in his presence. The people of New York idolize him. He is a son of the people. He was born in the wharf district of New York. His father, a truck driver, died when the son was 12, and the boy became a clerk in a fish market. To his credit, his office did not make him ashamed of his humble environment in his youth. Engagingly Irish, genial, lively and loyal, he is indeed one of the real folks and a man of driving power."

CARD OF THANKS

We cannot express in words our appreciation for the kind deeds of our friends during the sickness and death of our dearly beloved mother, wife and sister. For three years she suffered and during all of this time our friends ever lessened her sufferings. For the prayers, beautiful floral offerings and kind words and deeds, God bless you.

FARM STATES STAMPEDE TO GOV. SMITH

Norris and Blaine, Republican Progressive Leaders, Encorse His Policies.

GOV. MADDOCK BOLTS TO
"FARMER'S CANDIDATE"

Senator Wheeler, LaFollette Running
Mate, Routs G. O. P. in Montana—Hoover Advisers Frantic but Helpless.

His Western swing completed, leaving Republican forces in all the States he visited distracted by forebodings of disaster, Governor Alfred E. Smith is now carrying his campaign to the doubtful region bordering the Mason-Dixon line.

Democratic leaders are confident, and Republican leaders apprehensive that the "Happy Warrior's" present tour will result in a reaction no less decisive than that which followed his appearances in the West.

The Republicans have virtually abandoned all hope of carrying North
or South Dakota,
Wisconsin or Montana, while Minnesota and Nebraska give every indication of joining the stampede to the Governor. While Republican campaign managers cannot afford to admit publicly the loss of these States, those high up in the councils of the party have lost no time in appraising Hoover of the real situation.

Western farmers have risen in furious revolt against the grain gambling and special privileges clique headed by Herbert Hoover. They resented bitterly the fact that the Republican nomination was given, despite their rehoment protests at Kansas City, to "a man whose whole record stamps him
a relentless enemy
of Agriculture."

One of the most staggering blows
to the Republican cause was the unqualified endorsement of Governor Smith on farm relief and water power by Senator Geo.
W. Norris, Republican Progressive leader in Nebraska, who denounced Hoover's attitude on both issues.

Senator Norris, a staunch prohibi-tionist and Methodist, has been for a quarter of a century in Congress, a leading advocate of farm relief measures. He not only enjoys the complete confidence of the farming regions, but is the foremost Republican authority on both farm relief
and water power.

Ridiculing Hoover's farm program
as "meaningless," and asserting that the Republican candidate's record linked him clearly with the power trust, Senator Norris predicted that Governor Smith's stand on these issues would win him tremendous support in the West. "Governor Smith's Omaha speech," he said, "is wholly satisfactory to anyone who believes in the McNary-Haugen bill."

The blow which leaves the Republicans without hope in Wisconsin is the repudiation of Hoover by Senator John T. Blaine, former Republican Governor of that State, who succeeded to the leadership of the dominant Progressives upon the death of the Senator Senator Robert LaFollette.

Senator Blaine, who several weeks ago advised his followers to "end corruption by voting
for Governor Smith," has just issued a new statement in which he says:

"Mr. Hoover is opposed to practically all of the policies of the great mass of Progressive Republicans and independent forward-thinking
people of America.
No one's Republicanism can be questioned if he fails to vote for Hoover. I will not support him nor vote for him."

Leading the stampede to Governor
Smith in North Dakota is Governor Walter Maddock, who was elected on the Republican ticket and was the leader of the North Dakota delegation to the Republican convention at Kansas City. Not only has he given Smith his unqualified endorsement, but he is running for reelection on the same ticket with the Governor.

"The farmers are for Governor Smith," Governor Maddock explains,
"and I represent the farmers."

Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, who as candidate for Vice President, led the Progressive ticket with LaFollette in 1924, is also campaigning actively for Governor Smith.

Health Notice To the Citizens of Cameron

October 13, 1928.

On account of a number of inquiries received about typhoid fever reported to me, wish to state that rumors about the number of cases have been greatly exaggerated.

At the present time we find, after careful investigation with the State Department of Health, only five or six cases have been reported. All possible sanitary measures are being employed by the City to prevent the spread of further infection. However, it is essential that we have the cooperation of the entire citizenship, through the following methods:

1. Typhoid vaccination of every person between the ages of 5 and 50 years, who have not been vaccinated during the last two years.
2. All food establishments must maintain clean receptacles thoroughly screened.
3. All food handlers must have health certificates.
4. Drink only city water or from sources properly tested safe (watch cisterns and shallow wells).
5. Milk may be boiled or pasteurized to insure additional safety.
6. Keep flies from all foods, especially if they have access to near by open privies.
7. Properly screen and protect surface toilets from flies.
8. Typhoid is an intestinal disease and can only be transmitted from one person to another through food or drinks, therefore, see that what you eat is clean and safe.

HEART OF WEST GOES OUT TO SMITH

Farmers Throng Cities to Take Part in Enthusiastic Ovations.

HE PROMISES IMMEDIATE AND REAL FARM RELIEF

Attacks Bigotry and Intolerance—Challenges the Ku Klux Klan—Exposes Hoover Stand on Water Power—Assails Republican Corruption.

Starting at Omaha, where in a brilliant speech he made a masterly analysis of the farm question, Governor Smith's swing through the West on his first speaking trip of the campaign was one continued triumphal progress.

At Omaha he lined himself squarely side by side with the farmer, pledging himself to get the farmer a square deal. At Oklahoma City, two days later, with the applause and thanks of the farmers still rising on all sides, he turned with characteristic vigor and courage to the issue of religious tolerance.

At Denver he attacked the connections with the water power trust of the Republican party and the Republican candidate, and explained convincingly his own constructive program with regard to water power. Republican corruption, so sensationally revealed in the oil scandal investigations, he assailed in his address at the Montana State Fair at Helena. Although comment on Governor Smith's farm speech at Omaha has particularly emphasized the warmth and friendship shown by the Democratic candidate for the farmers and his determination to give them the kind of help they want, sight has not been lost of the masterly grasp which he displayed of the farm problem.

Going directly to the heart of the farm question, he said "the trouble is that the farmer is buying in a highly protective market and he is selling in an unprotected one. Everything that is used in the operation of his farm except what he himself produces, is hid behind the tariff wall. It is supposed to function for him but does not."

The Surplus

"A great many of the crops of this country the farmer grows in excess of the needs of the domestic market. That is the 'nigger in the woodpile.' That is what you have got to pay your attention to, because as it stands today, the farmer is compelled to offer it in the domestic market first, and the surplus tends to pull down the price that he receives for the whole crop."

Referring to broken Republican campaign promises of 1924, Governor Smith continued, "What did they mean by 'equality between agriculture and industries'? They meant to give the farmer the benefit of the tariff; they know they have not done it. The President knows it. Candidate Hoover knows it."

Governor Smith then proceeded to show that Herbert Hoover, the Republican candidate, has absolutely ignored this vital and fundamental part of the farm problem. Mr. Hoover is against the McNary-Haugen bill, was largely responsible for President Coolidge's two vetoes of that measure, and the only suggestion he has ever made for solving the surplus problem is to starve enough farmers into bankruptcy so that there will no longer be any surplus.

Pointing out the harsh cruelty of such a policy, which would mean that millions of farmers would lose their homes and be driven into the cities to find work, Governor Smith pledged himself to a constructive and humane method of saving the farmer from the unfair and ruinous operation of the tariff.

He said: "As I read the McNary-Haugen bill, its fundamental purpose is to establish an effective control of the sale of exportable surplus, with the cost imposed upon the commodity benefited. For that principle the Democratic platform squarely stands and for that principle I squarely stand. Mr. Hoover stands squarely opposed to this principle by which the farmer could get the benefit of the tariff."

"Here is a clean cut issue, which the farmers and voters of this country must decide. I pledge to the farmers and people of the country that no stone will be left unturned to give immediate and adequate farm relief by legislation, carrying into practice this principle for which my party and I stand."

Whispering Campaign

At Oklahoma City, pointing to his long record in New York public affairs and his four terms as Governor of the state, he denounced the secret and underhand campaign being waged by the Republicans to arouse opposition to him on the grounds of his religion.

"There is no greater mockery in the world today," said Governor Smith, "than the burning of the cross, the emblem of Christ, and at the same time breathing hatred."

"I have the right to say that if there is any citizen in this country who believes that I can promote its welfare, that I am capable of steering the ship of state safely through the next four years, and then votes against me because of my religion, he is not a real, true, genuine American. He showed that religious creeds had made no difference to him in his appointments to office while Governor. Protestants having been named in the vast majority of cases and all creeds being represented."

Gov. Smith Says---

The way he wants to relieve the farmer is to destroy him.

Mr. Hoover, as the chief adviser of the last two administrations, upon the subject of agriculture, assumed a direct responsibility for the hostility and inaction of the Administration, and continues to assume the responsibility by his fulsome endorsement of the record of Coolidge policies.

"Do you believe that liquor is the great issue of this campaign?" I certainly do not.

The absolute separation of state and church is part of the fundamental basis of our Constitution. I believe in that separation and in all that it implies.

I can think of no greater disaster to this country than to have the voters of it divided upon religious lines.

If there is any citizen of this country who believes that I can promote its welfare, that I am capable of steering the ship of state safely through the next four years, and then votes against me because of my religion, he is not a real, pure, genuine American.

The Farmer Finds A Real Champion

Governor Smith's speech on the farm question at Omaha, has set the western prairies on fire with enthusiasm for the Democratic candidate. That in Governor Smith the farmers have at last found a champion who is jumping into the fight for agricultural justice on their side is the keynote of all unbiased comment coming from the Western states.

Governor Smith went to Omaha, in the heart of America's great, farming empire, to tell the farmers that he is prepared immediately on election to take the leadership in getting the kind of agricultural legislation they have been vainly demanding from the Republicans for the past eight years. The response to this offer of friendship and action has been electric.

The people who till the soil and supply the nation with its food are now assured that if Governor Smith is elected they will see the standard of "Equality for Agriculture" hoisted to the flagstaff of the White House. They are expressing their enthusiasm in no uncertain terms.

Especially telling has been the contrast drawn between Governor Smith's pledges for the farmer and Herbert Hoover's policy of evasion. Hoover's hostility to Agriculture has been well known ever since his days as war-time Food Administrator. Now as Republican candidate he is trying desperately hard to cover up his bad past record, but his heart remains the same as before, and his only plan to solve the problem of the surplus crop is to starve the farmers out until there is no more surplus.

On such cruel and unjust policies, Governor Smith has turned his back. He offers the farmer prosperity and equality through the McNary-Haugen principles and the farmers are showing that they know him now as their best friend and ally.

of absent witnesses.

The case of the State vs. W. N. Baggett is set for trial next Monday. Defendant is under indictment for alleged killing of Mr. Beatty at the Sand Grove school house in August. The court ordered 125 veniremen and if the case goes to trial it will likely require the entire week as there are many witnesses. The State is represented by County Attorney A. J. Lewis and defendant by Hon. E. A. Camp.

Epworth League Gives Halloween Party With Scouts as Guests

Members of the Epworth Junior League of the Methodist church enjoyed a masked Halloween party at the church parlors last Friday evening. They had as their guests the Junior Department of the Sunday School and the Boy Scouts of Cameron.

At six o'clock when everyone met at the church a mammoth parade was staged on the down town streets. 116 children in costume participated in this parade which was under the direction of the three scoutmasters, Messrs. Dryer, Matula and Shipp. Mr. George Childress, Sr., and Rev. Ramsey. In order to add spookiness to the occasion everyone wore masks and a number carried jack o' lanterns.

After returning to the church, masks were discarded and games were played. The intermediate and junior department rooms in the church were thrown open. In the junior department the younger children had spook games under the direction of Mrs. Edwin York, who was assisted by Carolyn Cheeves and Abbie Reese Harvey. The older ones, including the Boy Scouts, gathered in the intermediate department where Mr. Matula and the Scouts entertained with their manouvers and with games.

Refreshments consisting of cocoa with marshmallows and sandwiches were served. Miss Mollie Moore, who is sponsor of the Epworth League had charge of the entertainment and is to be complimented on its success.

Al Smith Truly A Happy Warrior

From speech of Mrs. Cecil Smith of Sherman before Texas State Democratic Convention, Dallas, Sept. 11.

"For my part, I glory in the so-called lowly origin of Alfred E. Smith—in the valiant Irish mother that produced him—in that bitter poverty that forced him to fight every step of the way up the ladder and incidentally produced that precious residue which we call character—in that inherited moral fibre that brought him unscratched thru the temptations of the sidewalks of a great city—in that big heart that makes him the champion of women and little children—in that manly spirit—in that winning personality and that marvelous brain that meets and solves all problems of state as they present themselves. In fact,

I glory in every circumstance that combined to make our Matchless Leader—The Happy Warrior—he that every man in arms should wish to be. "Please God when Alfred Emanuel Smith, grandson of immigrant Irish parents, child of poverty—member of a proscribed religion takes his place as president of the United States, we can look the world in the face and say—Behold, America is true to her traditions! True to the sacred promise of her founders, that no radical test, no social test, no religious test should ever bar one of her sons from her highest office."

MAROON TAKES FAST GAME FROM NAVASOTA

YOEMEN PRESERVE UNBROKEN RECORD OF VICTORY FOR SEASON 1928

The Yoemen trampled the fast Navasota eleven on the local gridiron Friday, October 12, by a score of 27 to 6. This was the first real test of the year for the Yoemen, an they proved beyond a doubt that they have the greatest team in years.

Things looked bad for the Yoemen in the first quarter when Wilson, the Navasota quarterback, intercepted a Yoe High pass and ran fifty yards for a touchdown. This was the first time the Yoe High goal had been crossed this year.

The Yoemen came back fighting in the second quarter and scored a touchdown. 'Puny' Rogers kicked goal to make the score 7 to 6 at the end of the second quarter. The Yoemen went wild in the last half and scored three more touchdowns.

It would be impossible to name the star of the Yoe High forward wall, for every man on the line starred. The line worked just like a machine by continually opening wide holes for their backs and by constantly holding the Navasota backs for no gain. This is one of the greatest lines that ever played on the local gridiron.

'Pepper' Young was again the outstanding back and was always good for a long gain through the line or around the ends. But too much praise cannot be given 'Boots' Smith and Wilkerson. They hit the line for many consistent gains and played a great defensive game as well.

This was one of the best games seen on the local gridiron for quite a while.

The Yoe High football team will clash with the fast Thorndale eleven at Lawless Green Field Friday, October 19. This should be one of the fastest and hardest fought games of the season, for the Yoemen and the Thorndale boys are great rivals. The Thorndale team is coming over this year to avenge the defeat given them last year. But the Yoemen are just as determined to repeat their victory of a few years ago, and the dope favors them.

QUALITY AT LOW COST

WARPATH IS FEATURE OF COTTON PALACE

Snake Girl, Breath-Taking Rider and Human Freaks All to Be Found on Midway.

A family of six people who weigh 3,274 pounds—or 540 pounds apiece average—and a performance in which the audience is convinced that a bullet passes through the body of a live woman. These are two of the entertaining acts which will be seen on the warpath of the Texas Cotton Palace at Waco from Nov. 9 to 18.

Since the warpath attractions prove one of the best drawing cards for the Cotton Palace, this year's midway entertainment is one of the best known obtainable traveling shows, the Morris and Castle company. For one thing, law enforcement officials recommend the organization and cleanliness of the shows. For another, they are bringing a monkey speedway, a "Darktown Shuffle Along" revue, a clean girl show and 10 or 12 other acts.

Human freaks and a collection of domestic animal freaks will be on exhibit. Boys and girls in the most thrilling show, the Globe of Death, turn somersaults and ride upside-down in defiance of gravity inside a steel ball. The monkey speedway, which delights youngsters, and Emogene, authority on reptiles who brings a living exhibit to illustrate her talks will be in evidence. The fun houses, "Revelation," free animal acts and a rodeo are announced by the Cotton Palace to be coming, and besides the merry-go-round, whip, ferris wheel and caterpillar that have been on the warpath before, there will be "dodge 'em," "hey-dey" and "dangler" in the way of novelty rides.

At night the warpath is one of the brightest spots in the Cotton Palace grounds. Morris and Castle have their own electric light plant in their $320,000 show, and it is strong enough to furnish a town of 5000 people with electricity. Colored banners, gold leaf fronts to the show cars and novelty lighting effects add color to the scene.

DEBUTANTES TO BE TWICE ON PARADE

Texas Cotton Palace Exposition Takes Pride in Announcement of Forthcoming Beauty.

Twice on parade, the debutantes of Texas, this year at the Texas Cotton Palace Exposition.

This was the announcement today from Exposition directors now planning the tremendous show of November 9 to 18th, inclusive, when decision was reached to present sweet and lovely young Texas girls first at the far-famed Texas Cotton Palace debutantes' reception, and again at a Cotton Dress Ball. The first event will be on the night of November 14 in the exposition's Coliseum; the second the following night, November 15, in the same place.

Because of the contrast presented between the attractions of Wednesday and Thursday nights, these promise to be two of the most interesting to spectators in the coliseum. Whereas sequins, rich satins and chiffons, feather fans and rhinestone buckles are evident in the coming out dresses of Central Texas debutantes on the first night, there are to be prizes for the most attractive costume that proves the least expensive on Thursday night. Mrs. Emma Perry Boles, county home demonstration agent, reports already that many McLennan county girls are sewing on their organdie, gingham and print dresses. One of the requirements for a winner is that she make a dainty set of underwear to accompany her dress.

WACO, Texas.—Feature days and feature programs will be the rule at the Texas Cotton Palace this year. A show of unusual merit will appear in the coliseum all of the first week, while a new and distinct program will be offered each day and night of the second week.

H. P. BLACK ACCEPTS PLACE BRYAN CHURCH

EDUCATIONAL DIRECTOR OF BAPTIST CHURCH HERE
RESIGNS; MOVES AWAY

H. P. Black, for the past two years educational director at the Baptist church moved to Bryan Tuesday to assume similar duties with the Baptist church there. Mr. Black tendered his resignation to the church here last Wednesday evening. The members however had signed a petition, in which he was asked to reconsider. He gave his final decision Sunday evening to the effect that he would go to Bryan.

It is with regret that the members of the Baptist church and the citizens of Cameron see Mr. Black leave. His going will leave vacant a number of positions in the church. He has been director of the choir, general superintendent of B. Y. P. U., superintendent of the Sunday School, and has had charge of the finances of the church. It had been hoped that he would remain here and carry on the work which he has begun, but according to his statement, the work at Bryan will afford him greater results from the effort he spends.

The Board of Deacons of the Baptist church will have a meeting Thursday night and consider the matter of a successor for Mr. Black. The best wishes of a number of friends will go with him to his new home in Bryan.

This meeting will be a county affair; the program will begin at ten o'clock in the morning; individuals will bring lunch; and all W. M. S. members are urged to be present in order to study and extend a welcome to the visitors.

All circles will meet at the church next Monday to have the quarterly Birthday Jubilee. This meeting was to have been on the fifth Monday, but because this conflicted with the Association study class, it was decided that the fourth Monday would be in order.

Sheriff's Sale

The State of Texas,
County of Milam.

Whereas, on the 8th day of November A. D., 1927, in a certain cause, numbered 699 on the docket of the District Court of said county, wherein the State of Texas is plaintiff and George W. Murry is defendant, the said plaintiff recovered judgment in the amount of one hundred, three and 90-100 dollars for taxes and legal amount penalties, costs and interests computed thereon, together with the foreclosure of plaintiff's delinquent tax liens upon the property herein-after described as the property of the defendant, because of non-payment of the taxes due thereon:

And whereas, on the 3rd day of October, A. D., 1928, by virtue of the aid judgment and the mandates thereof, the Clerk of the District Court of said county did cause to be issued an Order of Sale, commanding me as Sheriff of said County to seize, levy upon and sell in the manner and form as required by law the hereinafter described property as the property of the above defendant, to satisfy the said judgment.

Wherefore, by virtue of the said Order of Sale and the mandate thereof, I did on the 4th day of October A. D., 1928, seize and levy upon as the property of the above defendant, the following property, to-wit:

Lots 14, 16, 17 and 18 in block No. 2 in the town of Gause, Texas; lots 7 and 8 in block 3 in the town of Gause Texas. According to map of said town on file or of record in the deed records of Milam County, Texas.

And I will on the first Tuesday in the month of November A. D., 1928, the same being the 6th day of said month, proceed to sell said property at the Court House door of said county, in the city of Cameron between the hours of 2 o'clock p. m. and 4 o'clock p. m., to the highest bidder for cash all the right title and interest of the above defendant, in and to the above described property; subject, however, to the rights of the defendant, to redeem same in the time and manner provided for by law, and subject to the further rights of the defendant to have said property divided and sold in less divisions than the whole. And in event there are no bidders, said property will at said sale be bid off to the State.

Texas and Texans

By Will H. Mayes

Fall Time in Texas

There is a fall tang in the air in Texas. The woods are taking on their brightest, most varied shades of all the colors, subdued at certain hours by the violet haze that hangs over hills and valleys. Flowers are gorgeous in their color schemes as at no other season. Freshened by late rains the grasses are making their last appeal before winter to the lovers of the beautiful. From the hillside the browns and greens that carpet the valleys, intermingled with the brighter hues of acres of flowers, are a delight to the eye, furnishing a panorama of liveliness for the fortunate traveler never to be forgotten. The other seasons have their compensations, but fall time in Texas is the glad time, the time when nature is at her best and when man is drawn closest to his God.

The Year Has Been Good

The year has been good to us in Texas. Bountiful harvests have rewarded the labors of those who have tilled the soil. Industries of all kinds have prospered. The laborer has reaped the rewards of his toil and the capitalist has no cause to complain of his earnings. The troubles and the sorrows that have fallen heavily here and there have been only such as men have endured in all time, and most of these have been met with the stoicism that has ever characterized mankind. Whether our personal lot is one of poverty or prosperity, of suffering or rejoicing, of ease or toil or whether it is our better fortune to have a middle place between these extremes, we can be glad that we live in a land where nature smiles so bountifully and bestows on each of us something in which we can delight.

More Than a Million Cars

Texas now has more than a million motor cars. These are pretty well distributed among all classes of people. On some recent trips in Central Texas I have noticed that while there are many fine cars on the roads, most of those seen have had long service and are filled with people who, until automobiles became low-priced, seldom had opportunities to get more than a few miles from home. Makers of cheap cars have been real benefactors of the poor, and along with the manufacturers have been the well-to-do who have discarded their used cars and bought others, thus enabling many to own cars at prices within their reach. To these benefactors may be added the tax-payers who have voted bonds upon themselves that the public might have better roads over which to travel. Travel provides an education for the masses of a kind scarcely excelled by the schools. Observation teaches lessons not found in books.

Beeville Dairy Plant

Beeville is to have a $25,000 dairy products plant, the principal output of which will be cheese, if plans that have been formulated are perfected. The capital stock is to be divided between farmers who are, or will be, owners of small dairy herds and Beeville business men, the dairy farmers having, as they should, the controlling interest in the stock. Dairy products plants have been made possible in Texas by automobiles and good roads. Until we had good roads and cars, enough cream and milk could not be concentrated at central points to make such plants profitable. Now, many communities are building and successfully operating milk plants. Wisely, most of them are locally owned and controlled. Most of the industrial enterprises in the State that have failed have been purposely wrecked by greed.

dy capital anxious to buy up the stocks at nominal prices, effect reorganization, and put the industries on a profitable basis. This is a form of common graft against which investors in local industries should guard

Building Texas Resorts

Some Houston people have recently bought a tract of land on the river near Kerrville on which they expect to build a number of homes and establish an exclusive resort. The section of Texas known as the Hill country, including a vast area to the west of San Antonio, Austin and Waco, will some day become famous as a summer resort for the people of East and South Texas and will be equally popular as a winter resort for those seeking a refuge from the cold of the North. That section has an all-year-round climate that is not surpassed anywhere in America, and the people are beginning to find it out.

Special Editions

I have been in newspaper work in Texas for many years and have seen large numbers of "special editions" of weekly papers from year to year. In a peculiarly strong way they show the growth of the places where they are published. I have never before seen so many splendidly creditable special editions of weekly papers as have reached me this year. They have come so thick and fast that it has been impossible for me to mention them in this column, however much I would like to do so. Without an exception they have been papers of much merit, of which both the communities and the publishers have right to be proud. They all show, too, that the newspapers have kept step with the progress of other lines of business in the State.

More Texas History

While in Gonzales recently I saw a copy of a special edition of the Gonzales Inquirer issued in 1923 on its seventieth anniversary, by the lamented Henry Reese, shortly before his death. I brought it home with me and although the paper was published five years ago, I sat up until a late hour at night fascinated with its contents. It was different from all other special editions I have seen in that, while it contained the usual write-ups of contemporary business interests so essential to the success of such a paper, it contained column after column of valuable history of the town, so interesting that I wanted to keep the paper for future reference. Mr. Reese had the able assistance of his sister, now the Inquiry editor, and many of the old-time residents of the town who wrote interestingly of historical events, many of which would not otherwise ever have been published.

I am mentioning this as a suggestion to other editors in Texas. Why not have a well planned historical section of your special editions and make them valuable in securing and preserving the history of your communities? By doing this you will make the edition more likely to be preserved for its permanent worth.

Can You Beat This?

An Eastland county farmer has raised 411 bushels of sweet potatoes on a acre of land this year. The land was irrigated twice, the water being supplied by a dirt tank, and was fertilized from the barn lot, where he kept a few dairy cows.

"VAGABOND KING" ASSURED TEXANS

Greatest of Recent Broadway
Successes Secured for Texas
Cotton Palace, November 10.

While the entire nation is talking about the "Vagabond King," greatest of recent Broadway successes and scanning its schedule in anticipation of its arrival at favored communities, an early date for its primary presentation will be Waco, Texas, during the famous Texas Cotton Palace Exposition, November 9 to 18th, inclusive.

This announcement came today from exposition headquarters following signing by authorities for the elaborate extravaganza which has set the east talking. The date of its presentation in Waco is to be on the night of November 10 in the great Coliseum.

The show will come down on its first run out of New York, where it proved an unusual hit during its entire run, and signing of the contract to bring it here is considered more important than the arrangement which brought the Follies to the Cotton Palace last year.

Complete and elaborate scenery, a full cast of actors who will have in their personnel several theatrical notables, and an accompanying orchestra that will assure extraordinary enjoyment of the show are some of the reasons why Waco and Central Texas may look forward to this event with unusual expectation.

Besides the securing of "The Vagabond King," Cotton Palace officials announce a number of other attractions that will make this year's show an out-of-the-ordinary fair.

During each night of the Cotton Palace there will be staged in the coliseum some event, in most of which attendants at the fair will themselves participate. With the opening Friday night, which is an innovation as far as the usual custom has been, the exposition will be launched formally by Governor Dan Moody before the annual cotton parade, the latter set for Saturday morning. Following the Broadway musical comedy Saturday night, there will be a concert or a movie Sunday night and Children's Night is the Monday program. Mrs. Ella Lovelace is to be in charge.

Coronation of King and Queen Cotton, one of the biggest social events of the Cotton Palace, is to be held Tuesday night, Nov. 13. Speculation is already rife as to who the royal personages will be, and what the motif for this year's coronation ceremony will prove. Tom Bush is director in charge and Mrs. Louis Stephens is women's chairman, with a staff of Waco workers. Of equal interest is the debutantes' reception on Wednesday night, of which W. J. Neale is director in charge. Names of several of Waco's younger set of girls have been suggested as among those coming out this year, but no definite announcement has been made yet.

RED WAGON SURE SIGN BIG SHOW IS COMING

If You See It's Dust on Highway, Remember the Cotton Palace at Waco.

A never failing sign that the Texas Cotton Palace Exposition will soon open is on the roads of Central Texas now. It is the red advertising car "advance man" of the great mid-Texas show which makes an annual tour of localities within a 100 mile radius of Waco to put up posters and window cards and placards, announcing the advent of this exposition.

Besides going to towns and cities along railroads, the red car goes to those which are reached only by highway and leaves its message about livestock and agricultural exhibits, Warpath attractions and Coliseum entertainments which will be staged this year from opening night, November 9, through the closing date, November 18.

The red car will be driven for the third consecutive year by Herbert Wilson.
